

MOI UNIVERSITY
DEPT. OF CURRICULUM, INSTRUCTION AND EDUCATIONAL MEDIA

REGULAR

DURATION:        3 HOURS

CIM 211: GENERAL METHODS OF TEACHING

INSTRUCTIONS: Answer questions one and any other two questions.

- 1.a) Giving specific examples from your teaching subjects, discuss three ways of categorizing instructional media used in schools and colleges. (15 marks)
- b) The Writing board is an essential instructional media used in schools. Outline five advantages of its use and discuss any five ways it can be utilized effectively. (15 marks)
- 2.a) using examples from any of your teaching subject, discuss the use of kinesics in non-verbal communication indicating how they can be used effectively in the process of teaching and learning. (10 marks)
- b) Discuss five factors that can improve verbal communication giving specific examples from any of your teaching subjects. (10 marks)
- 3.a) Giving examples from your teaching subjects, discuss any five ways of utilizing community learning resources (CLRs) under the method of bringing the community to the school. (10 marks)
- b) Discuss any five significances of community learning resources when used as instructional media giving relevant examples. (10 marks)
- 4.a) What is a school multi-media centre? (4 marks)
- b) Using specific examples from your teaching subjects, explain any five principles that should be used in the production of visual media. (10 marks)
- 4) Outline any six criteria that can be used for the selection of media equipment used in schools and colleges. (6 marks)
- 5.a) Explain any five factors that are likely to cause advancement in the use of digital educational technology in instruction. (10 marks)
- b) Discuss using any five points to highlight on what is needed to make the future prospects of using laptops in Kenyan classrooms for instruction a reality. (10 marks)