

KENYATTA UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2017/2018

FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF EDUCATION

EEN 100: INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

DATE: THURSDAY 1ST FEBRUARY 2018

TIME: 2.00 P.M. - 4.00 P.M.

INSTRUCTIONS: Answer Question ONE and any other TWO

1. a) Justify the need and importance of learning environmental education. (10 marks)
- b) Discuss the human activities that impact on nutrient cycling in the environment. (10 marks)
- c) Discuss five reasons why existing laws on the environment in Kenya have not been adequately enforced. (10 marks)
2. Citing relevant examples, critically assess the impact of rapid population growth in urban environments. (20 marks)
3. Distinguish between multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches to teaching environmental education citing advantages and disadvantages of each approach. (20 marks)
4. Review the various activities that have been put in place to conserve the environment in Kenya. (20 marks)
5. You have been invited to give a talk on climate change to a group of farmers from your locality. Outline the measures that you would advise them to take in order to combat the phenomenon. (20 marks)

*****