

MASENO UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2015/2016

THIRD YEAR SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CRIMINOLOGY WITH INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

CITY CAMPUS-EVENING

ACS 312: LEGAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Date: 7th December, 2015

Time: 5.30 - 7.30 pm

---

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Answer ANY THREE questions.

ACS 312: Legal Anthropology (Evening, Kisumu campus)

Year three semester two

Answer any THREE questions.

1. Discuss the contribution of Malinowski, Gluckman, Llewellyn and Hoebel to developing methodologies that are used by anthropologists to study law in different societies. (23.3 marks)
2. (a) Discuss TWO broad pre-colonial categories of African legal institutions as outlined by Lloyd Fallers. (11.3 marks)

(b) It has been argued that all societies are legally plural. To what extent is this statement correct? (12 marks)
3. Discuss the ways in which anthropology's concern with diversity and advocacy has driven the human rights debate. (23.3 marks)
4. Drawing examples from international criminal tribunals and the campaign against female genital modification/cutting, discuss the effects of globalization on nation-states' sovereignty. (23.3 marks)
5. Examine anthropology's contribution to the contemporary indigenous rights movement. (23.3 marks)
6. Discuss the relevance of the following perspectives in fostering inter-communal and interpersonal co-existence:
  - (i) Intellectual property rights (8 marks)
  - (ii) Transnational justice (8 marks)
  - (iii) Vigilantism and community policing. (7.3 marks)